

Lee DeGross Appn. Number 10/022,627 Exam. Group/Art Unit 2173 Amnt. B contd.

SPECIFICATION:

The Office Action stated, regarding the rejections of claims 7 and 10 under § 112, “However, page 9 of the specification discloses that “the invention can be used in future generation World Wide Webs and future internets employing internet/television hybrids” (emphasis added). This recitation is insufficient to enable one skilled in the art to use the invention in a network that, as disclosed by Applicant, failed to exist at the time the invention was made.”

The following amendment is a minor editorial correction in response to this rejection:

Page 8, 6th paragraph, replace with the following paragraph: “The ad door invention is not limited to WWW websites. The invention can be used in ~~future-generation~~ World Wide Webs ~~and future~~ internets employing internet/television hybrids.”

The following voluntary amendment is a minor editorial correction in response to this rejection:

Page 8, 2nd paragraph, replace with the following paragraph: “Newer PDA’s are being built to combine its features with various other electronic gadgets like cell phones, pagers, and the like. Cell phones are portable wireless telephones. Pagers are small devices that alert the user to return a call, or receive and send a message. Essentially any other device, ~~present or future~~, that is able to access the internet and exhibit the ad door is relevant to this invention.”